Meet Noelle Fox...

Noelle was the inspiration for the creation of Angelwood. Her mother, Sally, needed a residential program that would provide for her daughter's needs and help her to reach her highest potential. In 1993, Noelle was the first of what became the Angelwood family as her mother started a residential program for Noelle and two other children. As she and the agency grew Noelle has enjoyed many of the programs that Angelwood has added over the years such as the Summer Day Camp and now the Adult Day Training program.

Something to Cheer About!

Four of Angelwood's own have joined the River City Allstars (RCA) Cheersport Team. They recently came home from a competition in Atlanta in which the team brought home 5th place in the nation for their division.

Please join us in congratulating Catie, Ivey, Kiril, and Chuck on their wonderful achievement. A very special thanks goes out to their volunteer coach JSO Officer Misty Lederman of the Jacksonville Sheriff's Department for getting Angelwood involved with such a great team!
