Resident Organizes Staff Celebration!

This past week, Jennifer, a resident at one of Angelwood's Group Homes, coordinated a very special staff appreciation celebration for the staff that work in her house (pictured here at their celebration). She chose to do the cooking, made decorations, and prepared a speech letting the staff know that she appreciates all of them and how much they do for her. Thank you Jennifer for taking the time and energy to show the staff what they mean to you!
