Celebrating the Holiday Season at Angelwood

We had a busy December! Mid-month we hosted a family luncheon at our new campus and Santa made a surprise visit! It was a great time of reconnecting with each other and getting into the holiday spirit. Thank you to Robin & Bill Wilson for providing lunch! Check out the photos here.

The Bells of Angelwood performed some holiday tunes at our ADT and there was a sing-along at the end. This was the first time the group has performed since 2019 and it was such fun!

Each person in our group home received gifts from their wish list thanks to the generosity of Banyan Street Capital and the tenants of the Wells Fargo Building, Ameris Bank, Coverall Warjon, and Common House Worship. Additionally, some amazing Angelwood volunteers wrapped all of the gifts. We are so grateful for our Angelwood community during this festive season!
