SPECIAL THANK YOU

Angelwood would like to thank Steve Ramsey as he completes his current term. He has faithfully serviced this organization for over 15 years, serving in various roles on the board of directors.

Welcoming Our New Board President: Bob Brigham

Angelwood is delighted to announce that Bob Brigham has been elected as President of our Board of Directors, assuming leadership in late 2025 from David Emanuel, whose dedicated service and steady guidance have been instrumental to our organization's success. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to David for his outstanding tenure as President.

Bob brings a wealth of leadership experience and a deep commitment to Angelwood's mission of enriching the lives of individuals and families living with disabilities. His impressive career includes serving as Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) Emeritus at Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville, one of the nation's most prestigious healthcare institutions. During his tenure at Mayo Clinic, Bob demonstrated exceptional leadership in healthcare administration, helping to guide an organization renowned for its commitment to patient-centered care, innovation, and excellence—values that align perfectly with Angelwood's own mission.

Bob is not new to Angelwood's leadership team. He has served with distinction as Vice President of our Board of Directors, where his strategic insights and dedication have been invaluable to our organization's growth and success. His deep understanding of Angelwood's programs and his unwavering commitment to the individuals and families we serve make him the ideal choice to lead our board into the future.

We are grateful for Bob's continued leadership and look forward to working with him as we expand our services and strengthen our impact throughout the Jacksonville community. Please join us in congratulating Bob on this well-deserved appointment!

A Message from The CEO

After 25 unforgettable years with Angelwood, I will retire from my role as CEO, effective at the end of 2025. This has been one of the most meaningful chapters of my life, and stepping away will not be easy, but I do so with the confidence in what we've built together in this extraordinary organization.

When I joined Angelwood in 2000, we were a small organization with only two group homes for nine children between them, fifteen employees, and lots of problems. Since then, we've grown into something I could have only dreamed possible. The State of FL in their most recent annual review, graded Angelwood with a 99.5%. That score represents the accuracy of work, the person-centered approach, our attention to training, human resource practices, and more. Most importantly, our attention to the needs of each person who calls Angelwood home or comes to us for specific community-based services was noticed. Every day, we have the opportunity to impact the lives of people using our programs and services.

That success is thanks to the hard work, creativity, and dedication of a committed board of directors, caring staff, supportive donors, dedicated family members, and volunteers who believe our work is based on quality of service and respect for each person in this organization. I am ever grateful to each of you.

As I prepare to take this next step, I want you to know that Angelwood's leadership is in strong, capable hands. I have full confidence in the thoughtful and diligent work our Board of Directors has undertaken to identify the right leader to guide Angelwood into its next chapter. I will be working closely with the team to ensure a smooth and thoughtful transition.

I look forward to seeing Angelwood continue to thrive and evolve; and to cheering you on from a new vantage point with anticipation of the wonderful things yet to be accomplished in the future. Though I will be retiring from my day-to-day role, I will always remain a passionate supporter and advocate for this organization.

Finally, as 2025 comes to a close, I want to invite you to join us in supporting the individuals and families Angelwood supports by making a year-end donation.

In doing so, you too, can be the answer to the needs of some of the most precious people I have ever had the privilege of knowing.

With deep gratitude and affection, I pray you have a blessed holiday season.

Sincerely,

Chief Executive Officer

Behind every milestone, every success story, and every life touched by Angelwood is our incredible team. Day in and day out, our staff brings their skills, dedication, and their hearts to this work. They are the ones who turn compassion into action, who celebrate every small victory, and who never give up on the people we serve. To our staff: thank you for your unwavering commitment, your patience, your creativity, and the countless moments of kindness that make all the difference in the world.

Angelwood in Action

Empowering Lives through Community & Connection

Creativity, Community, and Growth: Angelwood's Day Training Program

At Angelwood's Adult Day Training program, our individuals are at the heart of every vibrant moment. Each day, individuals express themselves through painting, crafts, and group projects, building friendships and sharing laughter in a warm and welcoming classroom environment. Every creative achievement—big or small—boosts confidence and celebrates each client's unique talents and progress.

Beyond the canvas or craft table, you might find clients tending to our sensory garden, where colors and textures inspire new discoveries and spark calming conversations among friends. In another corner, the joyful tones of the Bell Choir can be heard drifting down the hallway, as clients rehearse for upcoming performances that fill them with pride and bring delight to the community.

All of these experiences—gardening, music, and art—come together to foster independence and skill-building in ways that feel joyful and meaningful. With each new day, our individuals grow and develop new abilities, whether it's learning to collaborate, trying out vocational skills, or simply finding new ways to shine. At Angelwood, everyone is empowered to reach further, explore their interests, and embrace new opportunities at their own pace, supported by a caring team and a welcoming community. Thirty three years after Angelwood opened its doors, our day training center remains at the heart of what we do. Together with our group homes and the other services we provide, Angelwood continues to make a lasting impact on the lives of hundreds of persons with disabilities and their families in Jacksonville.

Angelwood Community Explorers (ACE):

Adventure & Connection

ACE brings together the best of both worlds—meaningful community engagement for participants and valuable respite time for families. Through this program, individuals venture out into Jacksonville to experience new activities, explore local attractions, and build friendships with peers in real-world settings. From visiting museums and parks to enjoying recreational activities and community events, ACE participants don't just observe the community—they actively explore it. Meanwhile, parents gain peace of mind knowing their loved ones are having authentic social experiences in a safe, supervised environment.

Angelwood's Group Homes

More Than a House - A Place to Call Home

When Sally Fox founded Angelwood in 1993, she had a simple but powerful vision: every person deserves a safe, loving place to call home. As a Jacksonville news anchor and single mother raising two daughters with developmental differences, Sally understood something profound—a home isn't just four walls and a roof. It's where you belong. It's where you're known. It's where you can truly be yourself.

That same year, Angelwood opened its first group home, and for more than three decades, these homes have been providing stability, care, and community to those we serve.

A Legacy of Love and Stability

The depth of commitment in our group homes is perhaps best illustrated by the remarkable longevity of our residents' stays. We have residents who have been with Angelwood from inception—from when we first opened our doors thirty-three years ago—while others have celebrated twenty-five years with us. Think about that for a moment. In a world where change is constant and consistency can be hard to find, these residents have had the gift of stability, continuity, and a place to call home for decades.

Our 24-hour staff share in the daily rhythms of life, from morning coffee to evening routines. They celebrate birthdays, comfort during difficult times, and cheer on every achievement, no matter how small it might seem to the outside world.

Where Everyone Belongs

Located in residential neighborhoods throughout Jacksonville, our five group homes blend seamlessly into the fabric of the community. This is intentional. Our residents aren't set apart—they're woven into their neighborhoods, waving to familiar faces on morning walks, attending local events, and building connections that make life rich and meaningful.

Inside these homes, dignity and respect are lived realities. Each resident is supported in developing independence while having the security of round-the-clock care. The goal is always the same: helping each person reach their unique potential while honoring who they are right now.

The mission Sally Fox began with remains unchanged: ensuring that everyone has a place where they truly belong.

For our residents, their group home is exactly what it should be—home in the fullest, most joyful sense of the word. It's a place filled with friendship, laughter, and the comfort of knowing you belong. And that's the beautiful reality we continue to create, one home, one person, one day at a time.

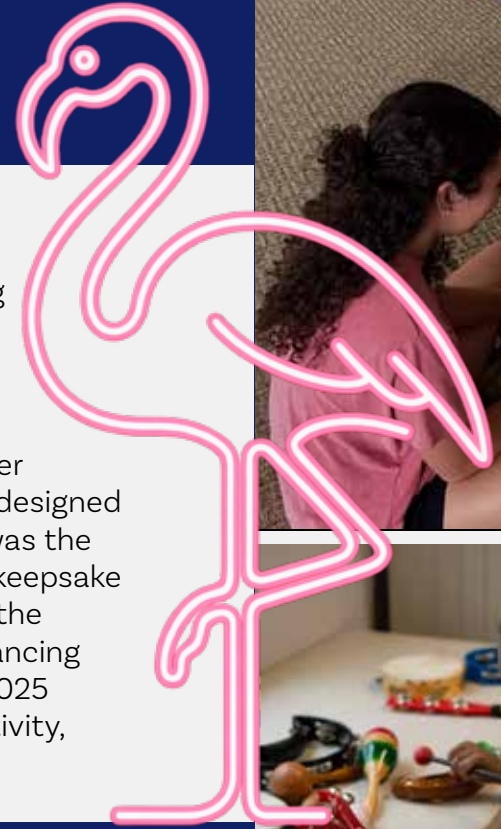

If you'd like to learn more about our residential group homes or other Angelwood services, please contact us at info@angelwoodjax.org or visit angelwoodjax.org.

Summer Camp 2025

A Flamingo-Themed Success

The 2025 Summer Camp was a vibrant two-week program, held over one week in June and another in July, centered around the fun and colorful theme of flamingos. This year marked an exciting transition with the introduction of a new camp director, whose energetic leadership and strong team coordination brought fresh enthusiasm and structure to the camp experience.

Campers engaged in a variety of outdoor activities, including water play, team hopscotch, and a wide selection of interactive games designed to promote teamwork, creativity, and fun. One of the highlights was the chance for campers to create their own tie-dye shirts, a favorite keepsake from their summer adventure. Adding a sweet twist to each day, the camp featured a playful ice cream-themed element, further enhancing the cheerful and engaging atmosphere. Overall, Summer Camp 2025 was a successful, memory-filled experience that celebrated creativity, collaboration, and summer fun.

Parent's Night Out is Back!

We're thrilled to share that our highly requested Parent's Night Out program has returned—and it's been a huge success! This favorite among families provides a much-needed respite opportunity for parents while giving kids an unforgettable experience.

Since relaunching this fall, we've been hosting monthly sessions packed with fun, themed activities for kids (ages 4-22 and their siblings). Our kickoff event featured a Halloween-themed celebration complete with festive crafts, games, a kid-friendly meal, and plenty of surprises that kept everyone engaged and entertained.

Held once a month on Saturdays (either in the evening or during the day, depending on what works best for families), each four-hour session gives parents a chance to enjoy a date day/night, run errands, or simply relax—all with peace of mind knowing their children are in safe, caring hands. With creative activities, energetic staff, and a welcoming environment, Parent's Night Out is more than just childcare—it's a night of fun for kids and freedom for parents!

Emma Hart - Employment Coach

Supported Employment:

Building Careers, Building Confidence

Supported Employment is where potential meets opportunity. We empower individuals to step into real jobs in the Jacksonville community, providing the personalized support they need to thrive.

Our participants are making their mark across the city. At our local thrift store, they volunteer and organize merchandise with precision, sort donations efficiently, and create the welcoming atmosphere that keeps customers coming back. At our Regency Square campus, those who are part of our janitorial staff take genuine pride in their work, maintaining spotless, safe environments while developing professional skills and work ethic that translate to any career path.

Every shift worked builds confidence. Every task completed proves capability. Every interaction with coworkers and customers strengthens social connections that extend far beyond the workplace.

Through Supported Employment, we're opening doors to purpose, independence, and the profound satisfaction of knowing "I did that." We're proving that with the right support, there's no limit to what's possible.

Reaching for the Stars: The Soaring Possibilities Celebration 2025

On August 16th, the Sawgrass Marriott in Ponte Vedra transformed into a glittering Hollywood-inspired wonderland for our annual Soaring Possibilities Celebration. This year's "Reach for the Stars" red carpet event didn't just meet expectations—it shattered them, raising critical funds for Angelwood while creating an unforgettable evening of elegance, entertainment, and community spirit.

Four-Time Champion -

Best Charity Event in Ponte Vedra!

There's a reason the Soaring Possibilities Celebration keeps getting better each year—and the community has noticed. For the fourth consecutive year, our signature event has been named Best Charity Event by the Ponte Vedra Recorder. This prestigious recognition reflects not only the quality and impact of the event itself, but the unwavering support of our community and the dedication of everyone who makes this celebration possible.

Dancing Into the Future

As the formal program concluded, JHP Entertainment took over, transforming the elegant affair into an all-out dance party. Guests kicked off their heels and loosened their ties, celebrating not just the funds raised, but the community built and strengthened throughout the evening.

The 2025 Soaring Possibilities Celebration was more than a successful fundraiser—it was a testament to what happens when a community comes together to support a mission that matters. To everyone who attended, donated, bid, danced, and believed in Angelwood's work: thank you for helping us reach for the stars.

The Thrill of Giving

The energy in the room was electric as guests participated in both live and silent auctions, bidding on exceptional items and experiences. The legendary Underwood's Jewelers prize draw once again generated waves of excitement throughout the ballroom, proving why it remains one of the evening's most anticipated moments. New additions this year—fabulous prizes from Baye London Clothing and Tech Hospital—added even more reasons for guests to try their luck.

A Partnership That Shines

This year marked an exciting milestone: our partnership with WJXT News for Jax. We were honored to welcome Richard Nunn, Chief Meteorologist at WJXT, as our featured guest speaker. His presence highlighted the growing community support for Angelwood's mission and brought additional visibility to the incredible work happening every day at our organization.

We are Grateful to the Sponsors of the 2025 Celebration

Angelwood By The Numbers:

The Impact of Community

300+ Lives Touched

Every year, Angelwood serves over 300 individuals and their families—each with their own dreams, goals, and possibilities waiting to unfold.

Miles of Connection

Our fleet of 8 vehicles doesn't just transport participants—they deliver people to jobs, activities, friends, and the life they want to live. Every mile driven is a mile toward independence, connection, and possibility.

5 Homes, Endless Possibilities

Our five group homes are where life happens. Personal care, daily living skills, community integration—and yes, lots of FUN both at home and out in Jacksonville. Because home should always feel like home.

Art That Pays

Participants in our day training program aren't just creating meaningful art. Their work is sold throughout the community and the proceeds directly benefit Angelwood. Creativity becomes capability which in turn goes toward helping Angelwood.

The Real Math Behind Our Mission

Here's the reality: 67% of our annual budget comes from Medicaid reimbursements and state funding. That means we must raise the remaining 33% through grants, foundations, individual donors, and fundraising events. Every dollar donated directly impacts the quality of care and opportunities we can provide.

80+ Heroes on Staff

Our employees don't just show up, they show up with heart. Over 80 dedicated team members go above and beyond to ensure the people we serve are safe, healthy and have real opportunities for growth and learning.

3500+ Hours of Caring

In 2025, our community showed up in a massive way, contributing more than 3,500 volunteer hours. That's thousands of hours of time, talent, and genuine care that can't be bought—only given freely by people who believe in what we do.

The bottom line? Numbers tell a story—but behind every statistic is a person living their best life, reaching their potential, and proving that possibilities are truly endless.

Angelwood Thrift Store:

Where Every Purchase Makes a Difference

The Angelwood Thrift Store at 5711 Bowden Road is where savvy shoppers meet meaningful mission—and everyone wins.

It has become a hub where community, compassion, and conscious shopping come together. Shoppers are discovering what makes us truly unique: 100% of every dollar spent goes directly toward supporting persons with disabilities and their families. When you find that perfect vintage jacket or that piece of furniture you've been searching for, you're saving money and you're changing lives.

The Power Of Partnership

We're surrounded by incredible partners who share our vision. The management and staff at Tiki Java have been especially wonderful, supporting Angelwood's mission in countless ways. Their commitment to our community and to persons with disabilities inspires us daily, and we're honored to call them neighbors and friends. As more shoppers discover Angelwood, businesses like Tiki Java are thriving too—they've seen increased traffic as our community of conscious shoppers grows. It's a beautiful example of how supporting one another creates prosperity for all.

This kind of partnership reflects what's happening throughout our community. Local organizations and businesses regularly volunteer their time at our store. Generous donors continually provide quality items that stock our shelves. Our dedicated staff work tirelessly to create a welcoming shopping experience. Together, we're proving that business and compassion can go hand in hand.

Why Thrift? Why Angelwood?

In a world of fast fashion and disposable goods, thrift shopping offers a sustainable, budget-friendly alternative. But shopping at Angelwood offers something more. People are seeking us out not just for incredible deals on gently-used clothing, furniture, household items, and hidden treasures—they're coming because they want their purchases to matter.

Every item sold, every dollar spent, every visit to our store supports Angelwood's mission to empower persons with disabilities and strengthen their families.

Join the Movement

Whether you're looking for boutique quality at thrift store prices, want to donate items that will serve a greater purpose, or are interested in volunteering your time, we invite you to be part of the Angelwood story.

Visit us and experience shopping with a purpose!

Volunteer Spotlight: Sharon Dowe

Twenty Years of Giving Back and Making a Difference

Twenty years ago, I was simply a working mother searching for summer care for my daughter Danielle. Then I found Angelwood—a community that understood our journey, celebrated our daughter, and gave our family a place to belong.

As a full-time professional and parent of a child with disabilities, every day presented its own unique challenges. When we discovered

Angelwood's Summer Camp program, it felt like someone had finally turned on the lights. Here was a place where dignity and respect are woven into every interaction, every activity, every moment of care.

Danielle participated in that summer program until she aged out at 22, and those summers gave us something priceless: hope, community, and the breathing room every family needs to thrive.

And something happened to me during those years. As I watched the staff love and nurture not just Danielle but hundreds of individuals with autism, cerebral palsy, Down syndrome, and spina bifida, I began to understand the profound ripple effect of this organization. Angelwood wasn't just serving individuals with disabilities—they were strengthening entire families, educating our community, and proving every single day that every person, regardless of ability, deserves to live with purpose and joy.

When I was invited to join Angelwood's Board of Directors, I said yes without hesitation. How could I not? This organization had given so much to our family. Soon I took on additional roles on the Program Committee and Thrift Store Committee, finding new ways to contribute to an organization that had so profoundly changed our lives. Before I retired from UBS, I had the privilege of sharing Angelwood's story with my colleagues, and their generosity overwhelmed me—furniture donations for our various locations, sponsorships, matching gifts. It reinforced what I already knew: when people truly understand what Angelwood does, they want to be part of it.

Over these past two decades, I've volunteered thousands of hours—at events, in our thrift store, on various projects—and I can tell you this: every single hour has given back to me tenfold.

Earlier this year, I had the opportunity to speak with Kent Justice from WJXT about our family's journey and what Angelwood means to families like ours.

While sharing our story, I realized something powerful: In addition to being a grateful parent, I am an advocate and an ambassador. A believer in the transformative power of organizations that see people—truly see them and meet them exactly where they are.

But here's what I want you to know: Angelwood runs on people who care. Staff members who show up with their whole hearts. Board members who dream about what's possible. Donors who believe in the mission. And volunteers—beautiful, generous volunteers, who give their time because they understand that building a more inclusive, compassionate community takes all of us.

When you volunteer at Angelwood, you're doing more than filling a shift or checking a box. You're becoming part of someone's story. You're helping a mother breathe easier knowing her child is safe. You're showing a young adult with a disability that he/she has value and potential. You're proving to our community that how we treat our most vulnerable citizens is the true measure of who we are.

Danielle and I have had the privilege over these past two decades to meet so many wonderful people who help make our lives and the lives of hundreds of others, a little bit easier. So many beautiful memories. So much gratitude.

Now I'm asking you to join us. Whether you have a few hours a month or a few hours a week, whether you want to help at events, work in our thrift store, or serve on a committee, we need you. Your compassion, your time, your unique gifts—they matter more than you know.

Because at Angelwood, everyone belongs.
